

Said I was the love of your life
In a couple of years I'd be your wife
And we were only supposed to have a break for a month or two
But I never made it back to you
They say nothing cuts like the first
But I'm onto my third and you still kinda hurt
Not a lot, but a little
Just enough to make me question if it'll
Never fully go away, be there on my wedding day
Yeah, you should've been gone by now
But you stick around

So what if it's 2053
I still think of you and you still think of me
And I did everything that I said I was gonna do
Will part of me regret it I didn't do it with you?
2053
I've got another man and a happy family
And he's a great guy, but he doesn't have a clue
That I do love him, just not how I loved you

Now I've got an apartment that you'll never see
I started drinking red when I left Tennessee
No need for you to know the ways I've changed
But something 'bout us still feels strange
See you in every guy I date
Why can't I seem to replace you
You should have been gone by now
But you stick around

So what if it's 2053
I still think of you and you still think of me
And I did everything that I said I was gonna do
Will part of me regret it I didn't do it with you?
2053
I've got another man and a happy family
And he's a great guy, but he doesn't have a clue
That I do love him, just not how I loved you

You were the one I'd wanna grow old with
And the last name I thought I'd take
But we had issues that I'd need fixing
And that wasn't something you wanted to face
And I wasn't asking for us to move mountains
Just to make a little minor change
But we didn't make it
No, we didn't make it

So what if it's 2053?
And I still think of you and you still think of me
And I did everything that I said I was gonna do
Will part of me regret it I didn't do it with you?
2053
I've got another man and a happy family
And he's a great guy, but he doesn't have a clue
That I do love him, just not how I loved you

Tell me, will I be
Tell me, will you be
Tell me, will we be the same as 2053?
Tell me, will I be
Tell me, will you be
Tell me, will we be the same in 2053?
2053, 2053
2053, 2053
