

As You Are (A Colors Show)

Bellah

I've been living, what they want from me?
I've been living, that's enough for me
And the details don't matter unless I'm showing up for me
Matters when I give a fuck

I've been torn up, born again
Baby, getting older
Time for me to let you grow

And there's nothing wrong, emotional, maybe
As you are, I'm gonna love you down, down, down
I might just let a wall down, down, down

Oh
Maybe there's more to the mould
And what we tend to, it grows
So I'ma water loving, I'ma water loving
Oh
Maybe there's more to behold
Trynna do right by my soul
So I'ma water loving, I'ma water loving

Told me I'm enough, it's not a dream
Dream
Losing inhibition, I'm in free
Better off all in, now I know the way to me
Way to me
I've put in the work, I need to be

Say, baby, it's you and me
Me
Baby, it's you and I
I
There ain't no T's and C's
No need to sacrifice anything
Oh, you don't need
Validation from outside
Outside
Let your ego go downsize
Downsize
Let's make room for something else there's nothing wrong

And there's nothing wrong, emotional, maybe
As you are, I'm gonna love you down, down, down
Down, down
I might just let a wall down, down, down
I might just let a wall down

Oh
Maybe there's more to the mould
And what we tend to, it grows
So I'ma water loving, I'ma water loving
Oh
Maybe there's more to behold
Tryna do right by my soul
So I'ma water loving, I'ma water loving

Overcomplicated
All these things we've got to prove
Find it over-rated
Might not want her, but I do
Over this fixation
With the way we've got to move
Find it over-rated
Might not love her, but I do

I do
Maybe there's more to the mould
I'ma water loving, I'ma water loving
