

Garden

Bellah

Why'd you make it so
Damn hard?
Hard for me to be respectful
Heaven knows I played
My part
God forbid I do
Something revengeful

Fear got you blind
You don't see the signs
I'm holding unto you like
You're my lifeline, yeah
I know the drama got you traumatized
Won't do you like Eve did Adam

In the garden, garden
In the garden, garden
In the garden, garden
In the garden, garden

Okay, alright, I know
You're damaged
Ain't trying to add no
Kilos to your baggage
Just want your love
I won't take advantage
Like Serena wanna be your champion
Honesty ain't choice, I demand it
Can you keep it candid?
Meet me in the middle if you leave me stranded
I might panic

Fear got you blind, you
Don't see the signs
I'm holding onto you like
You're my lifeline, yeah
I know the drama got you traumatized
Won't do you like Eve did Adam

In the garden, garden
In the garden, garden
In the garden, garden
In the garden, garden
(Garden, oh-ho)

Listen to this track, bitch
