

Half Of Me

Bellah

Something's different
'Cause you ain't holding me
Like you used to
Inconsistencies got me

Got me questioning myself
This conversation's way overdue
If you're a big man say it with your chest
Don't play dumb, dumb, dumb
I ain't the one, one, one

Don't go running off on me
Don't go running off on me
You made a deal, you made a promise
You made a deal, you made a promise
You won't find what you need
She ain't even half of me
That's one thing I can guarantee, oh-oh
(Don't go running off on me)

Who's got your attention?
I need to know what I've been missing
Would it give you permission?
Cut you off and let you go

Got me questioning myself
This conversation's way overdue
If you're a big man say it with your chest
Don't play dumb, dumb, dumb
I'm not the one, one, one

Don't go running off on me
Don't go running off on me
You made a deal, you made a promise
You made a deal, you made a promise
You won't find what you need (What you need)
She ain't even half of me (Half of me)
That's one thing I can guarantee (Guarantee), oh-oh
(Don't go running off on me)
