

Need Me

Bellah

Just found out you're a fixer-upper
Now I got doubts, maybe this ain't love
What do I do now? Too soon to cut you off
So I stick around, around

I've been sellin' you dreams
Apologies, I ain't mean it
Subconsciously prey on the weak, see
Thought you needed some healin'
Now I'm here in my feelings
Truth is I don't love you

I love the way that you need me, need me
Set myself up for the worst
'Cause if you ever leave me, leave me
I lose my purpose if you don't need me

Reality check, you ain't really need savin'
I wish I knew that
Before I invested my time and my checks
In you, tryna fix you
'Cause you know that's what I do best

And I've been sellin' you dreams
Apologies, I ain't mean it
Subconsciously prey on the weak, yeah
Thought you needed some healin'
Now I'm here in my feelings
Truth is I don't love you

I love the way that you need me, need me
Set myself up for the worst
'Cause if you ever leave me, leave me
I lose my purpose if you don't need me
Need me, need me
Set myself up for the worst
'Cause if you ever leave me
I lose my purpose if you don't

Need
Need
Need
Need, yeah
