Bellah

It's automatic, don't need a third eye to see
Baby, it's static, not electricity
Just like an addict, you don't know how to quit
That's what happens when you dealing with me
I know why you're calling, why you're calling (Oh)
You can stay 'til morning, stay 'til the morning
I warned you

I don't get tired, keep you inspired
Playing on your strings like a guitar
Out of fucks for you, out of love for you
Don't make me your habit, I knew this would happen, oh, baby

Heart on my sleeve so my wrist stay frozen
Only hit him up when I'm tryna lose focus
But the nigga don't notice
Keep coming back like a puppy with an owner
Don't lose focus
So much better when I do this
I'm the only one you choosin'
I got something that you like

It's automatic, don't need a third eye to see
Baby, it's static, not electricity
Just like an addict, you don't know how to quit
That's what happens when you dealing with me
Think you moving too fast
Shame you don't want another lover
See it in your eyes, you want it bad
You can never miss what you ain't get

I don't get tired, keep you inspired
Playing on your strings like a guitar
Out of fucks for you, out of love for you
Don't make me your habit, I knew this would happen, oh, baby

Heart on my sleeve so my wrist stay frozen
Only hit him up when I'm tryna lose focus
But the nigga don't notice
Keep coming back like a puppy with an owner
Don't lose focus
So much better when I do this

He say I'm the best he's ever had
It's no wonder he keep coming back
Try to tell him, sorry for the games

But he loves me, isn't that a shame?
Something you like, something you like, yeah
Yeah, yeah-yeah, yeah
