

Can Somebody Hear Me Now

Bellamy Brothers

I have called out to the eagles flying higher than the clouds
I have screamed and asked forgiveness
Running through the savage crowd
I would walk the road to heaven but I know I'm not allowed
And I wonder can somebody hear me now

I have squandered all my promises on the sins that man has made
I have pleaded with my elders not to be dismayed
I won't ask the raging river not to drown me thy way
And I wonder can somebody hear me now

I have seen the sun shine through the clouds fall upon my face
I have called out to my neighbor never heard a trace
And everything I've said here I end up in disgrace
Yet I wonder can somebody hear me now

Can somebody hear the words I'm saying
Don't somebody know the way I feel
Driven to my knees I come here praying
Let somebody stops and shows me what is real

I have called out to the eagles flying higher than the clouds
I have screamed and asked forgiveness
Running through the savage crowd
I would walk the road to heaven but I know I'm not allowed
And I wonder can somebody hear me now

Lord I wonder can somebody hear me now
