

My Indiana Lady

Bellamy Brothers

First time I saw her standing on the highway Watching all the trucks roll by She was a dark hair, Indiana lady, pretty as the morning sky
So we went to a little place, down the road, just one more mile
The sun was shining on her face for a moment only she looked sad and lonely that she's got the weirdest smile

Ref: My Indiana, Indiana lady, you put a little spell on me
My Indiana, Indiana lady, your heart is beating wild and free
Your eyes are bright and ocean-deep, just like the sky so blue
My Indiana, Indiana lady, I think I fell in love with you

I turned around and headed for the highway trying to forget her eyes
I looked into the mirror and I saw her standing like the key to paradise
So I turned around again and I stopped there at her side
As she whispered while she said
"Stay until tomorrow, stay until tomorrow, stay and be my guest tonight"

Last time I saw her in the light of morning Rain was running down her face Though I have to leave her, all her private passion hit my heart a million ways Indiana girls don't cry, so she gave me a little smile
And I waved the last goodbye Headed for the highway, headed for the highway, it was just another mile
