

Nobody Else

Belle Mariano

I don't know what you did to me
But babe, you made me fall so deep
I can't contain it, but I can't explain it
Told to find somebody new
But my heart has got its eyes on you
I tried to forget it, but I wanna say it, mm

When will the moon and stars align?
Oh, so maybe you and me can get our own time

'Cause I don't want nobody else but you
Nobody breaking me out my shell but you
My Mama always says, "Eyes on the prize!"
So ain't nobody else will suffice
Yeah, I'd rather be by myself than without you
Don't want nobody else

Yeah
Ooh, ooh

All these melodies in my head
Can't sing 'em if it's not for you instead
No song makes sense to me
If you're not, who's listening? Ooh

When will the moon and stars align?
Oh, so maybe you and me can get our own time

'Cause I don't want nobody else but you
Nobody breaking me out my shell but you
My Mama always says, "Eyes on the prize!"
So ain't nobody else will suffice
Yeah, I'd rather be by myself than without you
Don't want nobody else

But you or will you break my heart in two?
If you don't feel the same way I do

'Cause I don't want nobody else but you
Nobody breaking me out my shell but you
My Mama always says, "Eyes on the prize!"
So ain't nobody else will suffice
Yeah, I'd rather be by myself than without you
Don't want nobody else

('Cause I don't want nobody else but you)
But you
(Nobody breaking me out my shell but you)
Don't want nobody else, don't want nobody else
(My Mama always says, "Eyes on the prize!")
(So ain't nobody else will suffice)
Don't want nobody else, mm
But you
