Keep on telling you
Keep trying to get through
That big old head
Seems to be wasted breath
What more can I say
I'm not in love with you
Let it go let it go
And I'll be kind to you
I tried the simple things
Didn't return your calls
I was busy every day
Never any time at all
But you needed a bigger clue
I got town 'cause I didn't want to hurt you
But you keep pushing, keep pushing me away
You keep on hounding me
Keep on finding me
You keep on trying me
I can't get away
You keep on hounding me
Keep on finding me
You keep on trying me
I can't get away
Tried to be a friend
Wasn't out to offend
Well I love being with you
Suppose that why you got confused
I thought that we made it clear
I was never to change my mind
You've become so precious dear
But you've got to leave this behind
One day I hope you find
Someone who loves you too
So you'll let me be
And you'll forget you've ever had
A bruised and broken heart
That can't forgive and can't forget
Driving us both spare and mad
Well you're driving me away
You keep on hounding me
Keep on finding me
You keep on trying me
I can't get away
You keep on hounding me
Keep on finding me
You keep on trying me
I can't get away
Keep trying to get closer
Keep trying to get a hold of
Keep on trying, you're driving me away
Oh you're driving me away
You keep on hounding me
Keep on finding me

I can't get away
You keep on hounding me
Keep on finding me
I can't get away
Keep on trying
You're driving me away
Keep trying to get closer
