

Denigrated Faith

Belligerence

Denigrated in the name of mother, close-set because of depraved wish, to get off people whole their spirit, steal them belief, hope and sense.

cause all of people are just blind and dont see what they ought to

they want me to cry
when they want,
they want me to believe things which never happened, but I instead of lying
I want my life and all,
what is necessary for.

Denigrated, venomous angels patrol our venomous lives, their wings are broken, but they fly
but we see just empty sky

Empty like our souls they are incarcerated in our grey, who bind down our wings wings of people who neglect...

they want me to cry
when they want,
they want me to believe things which never happened,
but I instead of lying
I want my life and all,
what is necessary for.
