

Face These Lies

Belligerence

FACE!

All (of) these lies

They fade!

Sometimes lost in the time..

No reason to be followed but no reason to forget

FAKE!

There are no(t) ways to hide

THIS SICK!

Subspecifical kinds of mind(s)

Writhing in (the) consequences

Tossing in alluvium of mess

Writhing in those consequences

Why do we have to bear this?

We are forgotten

The way you like it

Our demons are rising

Our looks turn blind

We do remember

Which way you've chosen

Your society

Is turning grey

Why do we have to bear this

Direct interventions

Face these lies

The are no ways to hide this deepness

Face this deepness

Your hands are tearing mind away

These words were fake

They are depraved and damned (damnable)

Face this deepness...
