

You won't feel hatred
Silent, you are inside... why do you
Spread meaningless nonsense, that
Life is not a lie

... and tons of leaves are falling
... and tons of sludge are eating... your soul
... and still my life is failing
... and coldness licks my soul.. my mind

Opacity raises doubts about it all
The different should be understood

Fending the herd, the herd of glass eyes
Walking through, through ignorance

You won't taste those lies
Silence, is what you are... why still they
Spread meaningless nonsense, that
Life is not a lie

Why
Do we spread the lies and spread the plagues
What
Is our self-destructive race worth

Ruthless, cold darkness
The masses are mindless

Who is it, who's failing
Who was it, who failed?

Blindness is defense
In ruthless, cold darkness...
