

November

Belligerence

Now I feel alone,
Ordinary cry - telling you I'm strong Coming by ma side
Anything wrong for some faith Overmore and be my back again

Be my enemy I'm waiting down for you to say That I'm dreaming about the world where we wouldn't have to pray Tell me about the world we won't be the same
Be my enemy I'm waiting down for you to say

when november starts,
it looks like the time stops when the air becomes cold it almost seems that human froze

Everybody turns away none dies for me whoever I've met everybody turns from me

when november starts,
when the air becomes cold
it almost seems that human froze.

I feel
far from home,
far from own blood.
left behind
fighting for dear life.
