

You're first to mind yet last to call
Uncertain hands fill out the fall
Attached to all my biggest flaws
I sink below the water top
I can't break this bad routine
I'm sleep-deprived, my brain's a brawl
No conscious thought is found at all

Stick around, don't fade away
Do you want normalcy or fallacy today?
Stuck in place without you here
A slender tree with weak roots

You stitched back a part of me
That's never held its place
It's hard to find a ruby in a worn-out case
Don't ask for much, there's not enough
A broken crutch can't lift you up
I'm still waiting around for you

Stick around, don't fade away
Do you want normalcy or fallacy today?
Stuck in place without you here
A slender tree with weak roots

What if the day is today?
All of the knots start to fray
What if today is that day?

Stick around, don't fade away
(Do you want normalcy or fallacy today?)
Stuck in place without you here
(A slender tree with weak roots)
Stick around, don't fade away
