Take a walk out the gate you go and never stop past all the stores and wig shops quarter in a cup for every block and watch the buildings grow smaller as you go

Down the tracks beautiful McMansions on a hill that overlook a highway with riverboat casinos and you still have yet to see a soul

Jesusland Jesusland

Town to town broadcast to each house, they drop your name but no one knows your face Billboards quoting things you'd never say you hang your head and pray for Jesusland Jesusland

Miles and miles
and the sun goin' down Pulses glow
from their homes
You're not alone Lights come on as you lay your weary head on their lawn

Parking lots cracked and growing grass you see it all from offices to farms crosses flying high above the malls A longer walk through Jesusland Jesusland
