

Wide Awake

Ben Fuller

I had a dream that I was walking
Middle of nowhere on my own
I didn't care where I was goin'
I never knew a place called home
Out in the desert, I was waiting
I'd never wandered here before
There in the silence I heard You say it
Went from a whisper to a roar

You said rise up
You said rise up

I didn't know I was sleeping
I didn't know I was lost
You put the skeleton key in
And opened the door to my heart
I'm wide awake
I'm wide awake

You overwhelmed me like an ocean
You took my hand just like a child
There's not one thing I did to earn it
But You gave me back my life

You said rise up
You said rise up

I didn't know I was sleeping
I didn't know I was lost
You put the skeleton key in
And opened the door to my heart
I'm wide awake
I'm wide awake

Wake up all you sleepers
Walk in freedom, feel it in your bones
Wake up all you sleepers
Walk in freedom, let Him lead us home
Wake up all you sleepers
Walk in freedom, feel it in your bones
Wake up all you sleepers
Walk in freedom, let Him lead us home
Let Him lead us

I didn't know I was sleeping (I was sleeping)
I didn't know I was lost (I was so lost)
You put the skeleton key in (Oh-oh)
And opened the door to my heart
I'm wide awake (I'm wide, I'm wide, I'm wide awake)
I'm wide awake (I'm wide, I'm wide, I'm wide awake)

I'm wide awake
