

All Aboard

Ben Harper

All aboard pull the oar and row
All aboard to the poles we go
All aboard take the oar and row
Climb aboard for the gale will blow

All aboard to the prairies wild
All aboard man woman and child
All aboard to the prairies wild
Back to back and side to side

All aboard watch paradise burn
All aboard for the past I yearn
All aboard watch paradise burn
Douse the flame will it ever return

All aboard Noah built the arc
All aboard now the choice is stark
All aboard came two by two
All aboard will he come for you
All aboard Noah built the arc
All aboard before the day was dark
All aboard run from the frey
All aboard we'll sail away

All aboard now the waters rise
All aboard thunder in the skies
All aboard now the waters rise
On the plank before the last light dies

All aboard pull the oar and row
All aboard to the poles we go
All aboard take the oar and row
Climb aboard for the gale will blow

My master and learned one
May peace be upon you learned master
Master Chamharouche
Who holds all knowledge of the ceremony
And who dwells in the cave
Sultan of the Djinns
May peace be upon you learned master

All aboard pull the oar and row
All aboard to the poles we go
All aboard take the oar and row
Climb aboard for the gale will blow
All aboard to the prairies wild
All aboard man woman and child
All aboard to the prairies wild
Back to back and side by side
All aboard now the waters rise
All aboard thunder in the skies
All aboard now the waters rise
On the plank before the last light dies

All aboard pull the oar and row
All aboard to the poles we go

All aboard take the oar and row
Climb aboard for the gale will blow
