

Learn It All Again Tomorrow

Ben Harper

What I've got I don't want
All it does is hover and taunt Reminding me what I used to be
What I may never be again

Turns out what I'm good at doin
Is making something out of the ruin Borrow this wasted space that could never be replaced

Learn it all again tomorrow,
learn it all again tomorrow
Nothing I have you can borrow or steal
Yes I think we have a deal.

If my wheels were square, but the earth was jagged
I rode along, it'd be no less ragged
And seems to be the day
I'm usually this way

Learn it all again tomorrow,
learn it all again tomorrow
Nothing I have you can borrow or steal
Yes I think we have a deal.

I wish every harder day only took an hour
And I'm not just like the people I resent
I wish someday I could truly be a power
Say exactly what it is I meant
All I have that's in abundance
Is my perpetual redundancy
It's hard for me to say, I face it everyday

Learn it all again tomorrow,
learn it all again tomorrow
Nothing I have you can borrow or steal
Learn it all again tomorrow,
learn it all again tomorrow
Nothing I have you can borrow or steal
Yes I think we have a deal.
