1. The good lord is such a good lord with such a good mother to o

they have blessed me in the good graces of you I have heard a hundred violins crying
And I have seen a hundred white doves flying

D F#m Bm F#m G D G G G A

R: But nothing is as beautiful as when she believes when she believes when she believes when she believes when she believes when she believes in me

D F#m Bm G G/F# A

2. How good it must feel to be so young and free and a song that pleases a queen will always please me I have heard the wisest of wisdom and I have dined in palaces and kingdoms

R: But nothing is as beautiful...

D F#m Bm G G/F# A

3. Now all of life is just passing the time until once again your eyes look into mine I have been adored by a stranger and I have heard the whispering angel

R: But nothing is as beautiful...
