

End Where We Begin

Ben Kessler

I'm a shadow
You're a light
The same person on opposite sides
It's not for nothing
Yeah we try
Say the words but we don't do 'em right

Then I'm sitting on your bedroom floor
Right in the heart of it
Tell me I could've done more
Take the words out of my lips
Waiting on a metaphor
I don't know what it is
About you that makes me like this

I just wanna love you
Again and again
But we always end where we begin
Under the covers
To strangers again
We always end where we begin
We always end where we begin

I call you back
Every time
There's nothing like coming home to you
After a long night
My delusion
It's a crime
Won't you say something good
And I'll say that we're fine

Then I'm sitting on your bedroom floor
Right in the heart of it
Tell me I could've done more
Take the words out of my lips
Waiting on a metaphor
I don't know what it is
About you that makes me like this

I just wanna love you
Again and again
But we always end where we begin
Under the covers
To strangers again
We always end where we begin
We always end where we begin

Ooh
I'll say everything you couldn't
You
Hold me when you shouldn't
I just wanna love you
Again and again
But we always end where we begin
Under the covers
To strangers again

We always end where we begin
We always end where we begin
