

Known Like This

Ben Kessler

No it's not you
It's not that neon exit sign
It's not the way my drink was poured
Not the way it's pouring outside
No it's not you
Yeah I swear that I'll be fine
Just gonna walk myself home
Think I better call it a night

Heavy on the pavement
Passing smiles and their faces
Oh I smile but I fake it
I wish I could explain this
Feeling that I'm tasting
Cold as it's breaking me down
I hope you stay around

Cause I don't wanna be known like this
I don't wanna be known like this
Falling out of my body
Breaking while everyone's watching
Hate feeling alone like this
I don't wanna be known like this
First one leaving the party
Falling out of my body
I don't wanna be known like this

Can't stop thinking 'bout you
How you're probably thinking that I'm crazy
Another guy fucked up on something
Who can't hold a conversation
I swear it's not true
I could spend all night with you explaining
When the sun comes up and the music fades
I'll be all alone in the morning

I don't wanna be known like this
I don't wanna be known like this
Falling out of my body
Breaking while everyone's watching
Hate feeling alone like this
I don't wanna be known like this
First one leaving the party
Falling out of my body
I don't wanna be known like this

Hope that you see through this (don't wanna be known like this)
Know that I'm more than this (I hope that you see through this)
Don't know myself like this (I know that I'm more)
I don't wanna be known like this

I don't wanna be known like this
I don't wanna be known like this
Falling out of my body
Breaking while everyone's watching
Hate feeling alone like this
I don't wanna be known like this

First one leaving the party
Falling out of my body
I don't wanna be known like this
