

Dollar Store

Ben Kweller

Call it a day
Walking away
We hide
So we stay inside
I'll be right back
Panic attack
We burn
So we will return

I'm looking at the sky it's raining
Cross-legged on the bedroom floor
She's sipping on a drink complaining
Begging on me for more more
We're living in a simulation
I'll meet you at the Dollar Store
She's looking at the expiration
All that you want and more more

Calling it quits
Good as it gets
Whisper
Every dream with her
Carried away
We'll be OK
This town
Makes your mind melt down

I'm looking at the sky it's raining
Cross-legged on the bedroom floor
She's sipping on a drink complaining
Begging on me for more more
We're living in a simulation
I'll meet you at the Dollar Store
She's looking at the expiration
All that you want and more more more-more more-more

I'm looking for some motivation
I dunno what I'm looking for
She's sparking up a conversation
Telling me that she's bored bored
We're living in a simulation
I'll meet you at the Dollar Store
She's looking at the expiration
All that you want and more more more-more more-more
All that you want and more more
All that you want and more
