

Don't Cave

Ben Kweller

Sitting right here with you face to face
Surrounded by walls holding all the weight inside of us
Never really know what a person can take
Till the wind is knocked out and you don't want to wait
But you know that you must
Believe in us

Don't care
Don't give in when your heart aches
Don't let the bridge between us break apart
Your heart is much stronger than you think
We're not lost, we're on the brink
Of a goodbye we shouldn't say
So don't care

Remember that time we were brave enough
To say what we want
But now we're too tough to just be friends
Yeah, that was back when nothing else mattered
We were so us, unafraid to shatter
We jumped right in
We can be that again

Don't care
Don't give in when your heart aches
Don't let the bridge between us break apart
Your heart is much stronger than you think
We're not lost, we're on the brink
Of a goodbye we shouldn't say
So don't care

Don't care
Don't give in when your heart aches
Don't let the bridge between us break apart
Your heart is much stronger than you think
We're not lost, we're on the brink
Of a goodbye we shouldn't say
So I swear it's a goodbye we shouldn't say
So don't care
