

Only a Day

Ben Kweller

You had time to heal
I had time to rust

Have it your way
Don't talk to me
Don't talk to me, yeah
Do what you must
Don't talk to me
Don't talk to me

Only a day, only a day lay faded
Only a day, only a day lay only
Two feet short of the mark
I guess picking up the phone was just too hard
Only a day, just one day
Is a day too late
Is a day too late
Yeah, yeah

You stitched up your cuts, uh
Well, I'm still airing out my wounds

Have it your way
Don't talk to me
Don't talk to me, yeah
I guess it's too soon
To talk to me
Don't talk to me

Only a day, only a day lay faded
Only a day, only a day lay only
Two feet short of the mark
I guess picking up the phone was just too hard
Only a day, just one day
Is a day too late
Is a day too late

Only a day, only a day lay faded
Only a day, only a day lay only
Two feet short of the mark
I guess loving a guy like me was just too hard
Only a day, maybe one day
