Out the Door

Ben Kweller

"You'll never believe this." It happened today baby, my final revelation I was sittin' there, he said, "y'all don't care, You're the reason for this broken nation" Broken dreams don't die

Here I go out the door I don't need no more Here I stand, I got your hand There's no need to know which way to go

It's her versus him It's us against them You sink or swim or you're swallowed

You bleed 'til yer bled You feed 'til yer fed You lead or ye led to be followed All you can do is try

Here I go out the door I don't need no more Here I stand, I got your hand There's no need to know

Which way to go, honey I don't mind, I don't mind Which way to go, honey I don't mind, I don't mind I really don't mind.

Here I go out the door I don't need no more Here I stand, I got your hand There's no need to know Which way to go out the door I don't need no more Here I stand, I got your hand There's no need to know There's no need to know
