

Trapped

Ben Kweller

Broken bones, broken lies
I've fallen into your loving eyes
Fool me once, fool me twice
But I can't let you go
You play my heart like it's a game
We share a laugh, but it's not the same
You hate the clouds but love the rain
And I can't let you know

That when I hear your voice
Makes me re-think every choice
So I don't make a noise
'Cause you trap me every time
Now I'm gone, yeah, I'm free
But I wish you were with me
That's just how it has to be
'Cause you trap me every time

Your perfect nose, your crooked smile
Are begging me to stay awhile
Your cut-up clothes, your baggy style
Now I can't let you go
You have a way of twisting things
You turn your friends into enemies
I've had enough of the mystery
But I can't let you know

That when I hear your voice
Makes me re-think every choice
So I don't make a noise
'Cause you trap me every time
Now I'm gone, yeah, I'm free
But I wish you were with me
That's just how it has to be
'Cause you trap me every time

Yeah, you trap me every time
Yeah, you trap me every time
