

The Enemy Within

Ben Lee

Lookin' for thrills
Lookin' for fun
Sayin' the gray work can't be done
Giving advice but I know his voice
But I still believe I have a choice
I'm starting to climb
I've started before
It's makin' it's arguments once more
It won't ever work
Nobody'll care
What's more there's nothing
This is

The enemy within
And it's always saying it's always been my friend
But I don't believe the single thing
Coming out of the mouth of the enemy
Cause I know the enemy
And it's still trying to get me to give in
To the enemy within

When I resist
It changes it's tone
And tells me I'll end up all alone
Cause look at it kill
Look at it turn on anyone who wants to learn
Tries to seduce me into a trap
Tells me I'm special
And there's that
That gives me a clue, it's tipping me off
It's not the voice of God

It's the enemy within
And it's always saying it's always been my friend
But I don't believe the single thing
Coming out of the mouth of the enemy
Cause I know the enemy
And it's still trying to get me to give in
To the enemy within

It's telling me it's natural
It's all the dawn of time
It's always was
But that's lie because now I know
That it's a virus
That is not a vital part of our divine, imperfect nacre
It's mainly an illusion
Imitation, it's a fake
It's just a construct made of memories
Of pretended failure
And the lie of separation
And the lie that love is dangerous

So I'm praying for the strength and for the valor
And the virtue of the being that I came from
And the being I'll return to
Not the

It's the enemy within
