

Always Do

Ben Moody

World's falling between us
You but call my name
I tear the skin and bleed from a vein
She's just not the same

And I know you'll carry me away with you
But I know I'll carry you

Give in, give in
I always do
Give in, you win
You always do

I'd give this ransom to feel
As flesh and bone
A sense of sex in a sin
As cold as stone

And I know you'll carry me away with you
But I know I'll carry you

Give in, give in
I always do
Give in, you win
You always do

And I know you'll carry me away with you
But I know I'll carry you

Give in, give in
I always do
give in, you win
you always do

Give in, give in
I always do
Give in, you win
You always do
