

chasing you

Ben Platt

Keep playing hard to get
Don't wave your white flag yet
Just when I think I've settled into you and me
You leave me out of breath

I'm running on a treadmill
Your heart is dangled in front of me
I'm walking over eggshells
It feels so good when

I can't stop chasing you
Oh, it's primitive the way I do
My behavior is nothing new
I can't stop chasing you
Won't get too close to you
Because the thrill of it
Is tryna get you, get you, get you
My behavior is nothing new
I can't stop chasing you

Keeping him pressure fades
Holding for this space
Constantly closing in
Don't wanna lose, but then again
Don't really wanna win

I'm running on a treadmill
Your heart is dangled in front of me
I'm walking over eggshells
It feels so good when

I can't stop chasing you
Oh, it's primitive the way I do
My behavior is nothing new
I can't stop chasing you
Won't get too close to you
Because the thrill of it
Is tryna get you, get you, get you
My behavior is nothing new
I can't stop chasing you

Runnin', runnin', I'm runnin', runnin' after you
Runnin', runnin', I'm runnin', runnin' after you
Runnin', runnin', I'm runnin', runnin' after you
I can't stop chasing you

I can't stop chasing you
Oh, it's primitive the way I do
My behavior is nothing new
I can't stop chasing you
Won't get too close to you
Because the thrill of it
I can't stop chasing you

Runnin', runnin', I'm runnin', runnin' after you

Runnin', runnin', I'm runnin', runnin' after you
Runnin', runnin', I'm runnin', runnin' after you
