

Share Your Address

Ben Platt

Darling, you might think it's too soon
But I can't get you out of my head now
Picturing myself in your room
And I wanna be with you 'til I'm dead now

I want your friends to be my friends
I'll make you breakfast in your bed
I want it all with you
And if I'm coming on too strong
It's 'cause I've waited far too long
For someone just like you

I want a key to your house
I wanna pick up your clothes
I wanna clean up your mess
I wanna know where you hide things
Wanna be in your photos
Wanna share your address
I know, I know it's too soon, too fast
But this could last
I wanna share your address
I know, I know it, it feels like love
So let's shack up
I wanna share your address

I just wanna stare at your face
Then spend quality time with your mother
We can over-drink at your favorite place
And we can waste the whole next day to recover

I wanna watch you while you sleep
I know I might sound like a creep
But I can't help myself
And it's so easy to forget
That we've barely even met
But I want no one else (I want no one else)

I want a key to your house
I wanna pick up your clothes
I wanna clean up your mess
I wanna know where you hide things
Wanna be in your photos
Wanna share your address
I know, I know it's too soon, too fast
But this could last
I wanna share your address
I know, I know it, it feels like love
So let's shack up
I wanna share your address

I wanna be your emergency contact
You can put me down
'Cause you know I know you best (I know you best)
It doesn't matter where I go
Without you, I'll never be home
I wanna share your address
I wanna be your emergency contact

You can put me down
'Cause you know I know you best (I know you best)
It doesn't matter where I go
Without you, I'll never be home
I wanna share your address

I want a key to your house
I wanna pick up your clothes
I wanna clean up your mess
I wanna know where you hide things
Wanna be in your photos
Wanna share your address
I know, I know it's too soon, too fast
But this could last
I wanna share your address
I know, I know it, it feels like love
So let's shack up
I wanna share your address
