

All Your Luck

Ben Quad

You're everything to me
Every second I spend with you is like I'm living in a
Painted world, our own movie
I only wish that you could see you like I do

Pull me up, so I can reel you in
Hold me closer, so I can tell you

When I get back home we'll fight those funny feelings
You're too hard on yourself, you deserve better than this
Leave all of the details up to me
I know the future's tough to see
Leave all the details up to me
You don't have to worry

Puppy dog eyes shut tight
You're so scared that you won't see the light

Pull me up, so I can reel you in
Hold me closer, so I can tell you

When I get back home we'll fight those funny feelings
You're too hard on yourself, you deserve better than this
Leave all of the details up to me
I know the future's tough to see
Leave all the details up to me
You don't have to worry

With all your luck, you'd end up this way
You're the brightest star I know
If every cloud covered your face
I'd still let you guide me home

You know that I love you
Red eyes and everything
Yes, I do, I do, I do
You know that I love you
Red eyes and everything
Yes, I do, I do, I do
You know that I love you
Red eyes and everything
Yes, I do, I do, I do
You know that I love you
Red eyes and everything
Yes, I do, I do, I do
