

Holding Patterns

Ben Quad

It's burned in my head
Every word that we said
Lied to ourselves
Promised future amends

It's lost in my chest
What I've been trying to say
We pull back and forth
Till it's all frayed away
I hope this makes you happy
I hope this makes you happy

If you're not
If you're not
If you're not
Then just let me know
If you're not
If you're not
If you're not
Then just let this go

Build me
Break me
Better off
You'll never see
Believe me
When I say
I'm better off
You'll never see

You acted like you had nothing to lose
Live life in holding patterns until what matters is finally out of view

If I'm not
If I'm not
If I'm not
Then just let me know
If it's not
If it's not
If it's not
Then just let this go

Build me
Break me
Better off
You'll never see
Believe me
When I say
It's better off
It ends this way

If it's not
If it's not
If it's not
Then just let this go
If it's not
If it's not

If it's not
Then just let this go
