

Out Of My Head

Ben Rector

We've got this situation
And I don't know, I don't know how to fix it
You've got your intuition
And I've changed, rearranged
Oh but now I'm used up, all done
Waiting on someone
I-I don't have no patience
For you to come undone

I-I-I'm out of my head
I'm out of control
I'm out of my mind again
And I'm out of regrets
I'm letting you know
I'm letting you go again
I'm ou-out of my head

Think back to when we started
Things were fine, things were good had a fighting chance
But now we're broken hearted
Back and forth trying to figure out
Where you stand up, all done
Waiting on someone
I-I don't have no patience for you to come undone

I-I-I'm out of my head
I'm out of control
I'm out of my mind again
And I'm out of regrets
I'm letting you know
I'm letting you go

Again I'm back to where we started
With you I can't seem to part
Or leave or go away it's true
I'm leaving you

I'm out of my head
I'm out of control
I'm out of my mind again
And I'm out of regrets
I'm letting you know
I'm letting you go

Cause I'm out of my head
I'm out of control
I'm out of my mind again
And I'm out of regrets
I'm letting you know
I'm letting you go
