

Over and Over

Ben Rector

(Again and again)
(Again and again)
(Again and again)

It's been a while since
We felt the way we did
Back when we were dumb and younger
It's been a while since
I looked into your eyes
And saw starlight, bold bright colors, yeah

When I'm down (You lift me up)
When I'm dry (You fill my cup)
No one else (Could be my love)
(My love)

I would choose you over and over
I would choose you over and over
I would choose you over and over again, again
And after all we've been through
There's no one else for me but you
I would choose you over and over again, again
(Again and again)

You are the real thing
The novel before the film
All the nuance, every letter
And you do things to me
Like they have never been done
A love like ours could last forever, and ever

When I'm down (You lift me up)
When I'm dry (You fill my cup)
No one else (Could be my love)
No one (My love)

I would choose you over and over
I would choose you over and over
I would choose you over and over again, again
And after all we've been through
There's no one else for me but you
I would choose you over and over again, again
(Again and again)
(Again and again)
(Again and again)

When I'm down (You lift me up)
When I'm dry (You fill my cup)
No one else (Could be my love)
No one (My love)

I would choose you over and over
I would choose you over and over
I would choose you over and over again, again
And after all we've been through
There's no one else for me but you
I would choose you over and over again, again

(Again and again)
(Again and again) I would choose you over and over
Again, again (Again and again)
(Again and again)
(Again and again) I would choose you over and over
Again, again (Again and again)
