

Welcome To Atlanta

Ben Rector

Atlanta, what is up?
There's so many of you
I'm turning my hat backwards
Not 'cause I'm a cool guy
But because when the lights are right above me
You can't see my face
I'd like to connect with you
Thank you, thanks for saying that

Here's what we're gonna do
We're gonna go back and forth a couple times
Kind of warming it up
Let's loosen it up okay?
It's Saturday night
Having a good time
And then I'm going to combine you two in harmony
Choir of angels will appear
It'll be wonderful
So here we go
Very nice
Very, very good
Here we go

Living my best life
Living my best life
Living my best life
Living my best life
Living my best life
Living my best life
Living my best life
Living my best life

Twice as fast here we go

Living my best life
Living my best life
Living my best life
Living my best life
C'mon
Living my best life
Living my best life
