

Who I Am

Ben Rector

Sometimes all that I can do is just believe
Open up this heart, open up these arms
Receive this peace
I've been jaded, and I'm faded oh so slow
I'm done pushing through this mess
Jesus show me home

Please let me know who I am
Please let me know who I am

And when all that you can do is just believe
With your weary heart and your weary arms
Receive this peace
'Cause you've been jaded, I've been waiting oh so slow
'Cause you've been pushing through this mess
But you were never on your own

So now you know who I am
And now you know who I am

Can I let you know who I am?
Can I let you know who I am?
