

Heroman

Ben Reilly

So they laughed at me...
Well
We'll see how long that lasts
With his powers
Fortified with a confidence that his newfound super strength has given him
(Yeah)
He's a new man
With one hell of a journey in front of him
So, look out, world!
Here comes-!

What's my motherfucking name!? (Heroman!)
Yeah, and who you flying with? (Heroman!)
I been hearing what they saying nowadays (Heroman!)
Time to let the world know its my shit (Heroman!)

Born inside the heart of a blistering winter climate (Heroman!)
Tryna find the heart to approach 'em
I wouldn't advise it (Heroman!)
Accustomed to the violence
Niggas don't know how I get (Heroman!)

How you think I'm a nihilist? (Heroman!)
A nihilist
Annihilate anything with these quantam bands
Looking through the hourglass to see how long this power last
The God-honest truth
The results could defy a polygraph
I'm probably passed
The niggas you probably passed as godly
And I'm probably grasping
Every opportunity around me
I'm usually a mix between Peter Parker and Sean Carter
David Ruffin
Six foot something
Can't make my pride smaller
Taller than my shortcomings
My time short-coming
The drive I feel in my veins could probably transport busses
I'm on my way, pal
I'm paid in my PayPal
After all I been through
Should I care for what they say now?
Opened up this stencil
They'll be drawn to what I say now
I picked up this pencil for the story that I laid down (Save!)
Okay, now
With great power
Comes with even greater [?] Nordstroms
And even greater enemies
Mad cus they can't afford them
Then greater was the energy
Talking 'bout them on forums
I'm tryna save the world from you niggas
Have some decorum
(Save!)

What's my motherfucking name!?! (Heroman!)
Yeah, and who you flying with? (Heroman!)
I been hearing what they saying nowadays (Heroman!)
Time to let the world know its my shit (Heroman!)

I've seen here before
I've dreamed here before
My genes great
I rose with the pheonix before
Like an X-Man
I done got my team through the storm
It's just us in this league, little boy
What's my motherfucking name!?! (Heroman!)

Surely his bizarre and unique position of dual identity brings on it's own u nexpected traumas...
