

Irresponsible

Ben Reilly

Cardio
At the right time
Let's just say I'm in my right mind
Things took the turn of a lifetime
You got a light
That could power up at nighttime
(Want a-, aye)
Want a woman
Tell the truth, you got a lasso on me
Pull it
You know shooters gon shoot
And I had to bite the bullet
How you got a thin waist living life to the fullest?

(Save!)
Let's do something irresponsible
Let's do something irresponsible (Aye)
Let's do something irresponsible
Baby, let's do something-

Great power
Great sex
Great love
Great cheques
Great power
Great sex
Great love
Great cheques

Yes
First kiss been a miss
We ain't no strong chain
I gave it to you
See, I would've done Beyoncé
Put a nigga in the brand new Benz
That's Ben, uh
I used to call that nigga twin, like
What happens, uh, uh
Come put me down, uh
Just give me that light
Like I was Jean-Paul
Ever since really young, bae, really you was the one
First yes, how the hell you ever really tell me nuh-uh
Uh, uh, uh, uh
Beat it squeaky clean
Organize them ideas, if you know what I mean
Good girl, but I'm mad for that energy
Play with me, I go missing
Wait, when she look at me?
Heard you looking for me
So we can settle things
You lost her then get into her
I got several things
Fuck and I get flamed thinking 'bout wedding rings
Things you detest
Like they never meant to sell us drinks

(Save!)
Let's do something irresponsible (Yes)
Let's do something irresponsible
Let's do something irresponsible
Baby, let's do something-

Great sex
Great love
Great cheques
Great power
Great sex
Great love-

See, I met this girl once before
Like the girl next door
She had the juiciest couture
With her pants Velour
In hopes for a chance to dance
And advance for more
Sort of like Hov and Pharrell
How she carry the lore
Lure me into a home with no ego
You dropped down a few pegs and you still got your eagle on
Follow for a sec, girl
I don't want you to read me wrong
It would be dead wrong for me to lead you on
If I didn't have this power, would you check for me?
If I started power tripping, would you check me?
Catch me?
Tell me the truth when it might upset me?
Can't we jump off the roof?
He moving at chess speeds
When I look into your eyes and they look back
I feel awkward
I start to realize in my eyes you're like cooked crack
Big highs and raw power
Let the stains in the dam cover man if you want
I'm damned if I do, girl
And damned if I don't
I think I'll find the confidence to stand on my own
Shit I'm tryna manifest and be the man that you want
But, first
(Save!)
Let's do something irresponsible

We find our hero and the girl next door sharing a kiss before the new year begins...
