

Red Bird

Ben Reilly

The Black Pacino in a turtle neck
I'm immersed in perfect wording, I'm Certain the scars are worth it
I'm from a city with a murder rep
It's unfortunate, when accidents happen on purpose
Your nervousness is clouding your judgment
No longer pulling my punches
You hold your breath, you holding nuts
Nigga trust I hold grudges
I'm here to push discussion of course
If you want it, So be it (Soviet)
Ain't no rushing (Russian) the boy
I'm just a pulse in the force
Tonight I bring a fight, not even mike could endure
But I assure you like Canarsie I floss
My teeth porcelain white
I wouldn't bite you if I wanted to boy
I'm only here to shake spheres (Shakespeare), I'm like a Montag ue boy
The world is in my hands I treat it like a snow globe
Coke white flows
The shit I writes belong in your nose
Anything goes, Nico told me do it, I'm on top of it
This Molotov came out the blue
This alcohol's anonymous
Proud of this
P-funking like parliament
I'd rather use a credit card
No telling where a dollar been Eagle on me Donovan
Carbon mixed with oxygen
Been up this road a thousand times and still ain't check my mil eage yet
A monster homie locking this (loch ness)
You figure who next to die
Ima give y'all pesticide
The cheese I got not pasteurized
I reside in clean blue waters
Recognize who made those lines
We see through boarders
I see through poker faces
So won't you explore the matrix
I hope you see me in the sky when you lack motivation
I- lemme hear that
