Rescue

Ben Reilly

When I fall, would you be there to come pick me up? (Rescue me)
If I bump my head and forget
Could you clear it up? (Rescue me)
Don't care if it took weeks to feel stronger now (Rescue me)
Said you'll be there for me
It took long enough

Would you?
Would you?
Would you? would you? would you?
Would you?
Would you? would you? would you?
Would you?
Would you? would you? would you?
Would you?
Would you? would you?

I would jump off a bridge to find your love again
Dive head first into the worst to feel your touch again
And at your lowest, I'll be Clark Kent
See, I adore you
If I gotta look for you, then I'll rip off the hinge
It all depends on what we mean to each other
Shorty, we rounded by everything that we see in each other
I recognize I'm seconds from me wrecking my mind
You question if I'm coming to your rescue
And I'll reckon I tried
I tried with all the hours
Climbed the tallest towers
Fought with all powers
Tryna take whats ours
I'ma get through that while I'm tryna be beside you
I'ma send you that
Wire everything that's required of me
You're super bad
You're super human
Super safe with me
You're suitable
You're super woman
I feel safe here, indeed
Just in case you think something would spark a change
If you need me, I'm coming to save the day
(Save!)

When I fall, would you be there to come pick me up? (Rescue me)
If I bump my head and forget
Could you clear it up? (Rescue me)
Don't care if it took weeks to feel stronger now (Rescue me)
Said you'll be there for me
It took long enough

I would!
Walk through the fire for you
Walk a hundred miles for you
Fuck around and die for you
I'ma hold it down for you
Even if I drown for you

Fuck around and die for you
Walk through the fire for you
Walk a hundred miles for you
Fuck around and die for you
I'ma hold it down for you

Fuck around and die for you
Walk through the fire for you
Walk a hundred miles for you
Fuck around and die for you
I'ma hold it down for you
