

She Is Love

Ben's Brother

Here I go again
Skating on the ice
And it's silly
Cos I've fallen through it once
Never thought I'd do it twice
Oh dear me!
And I did it to get her near me

Because
She is love, she is love
She is love, she is love
She burns brighter
Than the brightest of suns
And I know there'll be one
She is love

If I just let it be
And see what it becomes
Hold steady
Cos what she gave to me
Could never be undone
Not nearly
And I live it
Sincerely

Because
She is love, she is love
She is love, she is love
She burns brighter
Than the brightest of suns
And all I care I'm one
All I care I'm one

Don't start to doubt it
Don't even think about it
Just trust that it's strong enough
She is love

She is love, she is love
She is love, she is love
She is love, she is love
