

Should I Believe You

Ben's Brother

Should I Believe You

What if you ever changed your mind about me?
Wouldn't you always tell me sweet white lies?
And if I ever
Told my own about you
Does that mean that someday
You would say goodbye?

Should I believe you?
I should say so
Should I believe you
I'll never know

Nothing can touch you
That I've ever known
You cut through emotions and you
You make your own
And now I sit here
Worship reverently
Never forgetting
What you, what you mean to me

Should I believe you?
I should say so
Should I believe you?
I'll never know

It's happened before
It'll happen again
2000 times
We're not just friends

Should I believe you?
I should say so
Should I believe you?
I'll never know

Should I believe you?
I should say so
Should I believe you?
I'll never know
