

Autonomous Mind

Beneath the Massacre

A hymn to the rarest of all
One who dared to descend
Survivor of depths
Perhaps not even born yet
Perhaps never will

Just another failed attempt at realigning realities
Visceral disgust follows all day and haunts the sleepless nights
Dissociation
Deprivation of anything worthwhile
Existential crisis
Exhausted mind from cultural lifestyle
Equilibrium between excess and selfish apathy

Survivor of
The deepest of the mind
Resurfacing
Empty handed

A paradigm shifts

A paradigm shifts

Survivor of
The deepest of the mind
Resurfacing
Empty handed

Gods are long dead
Killed by the hand of mankind
Now witness the death of man (Death of man)
Inaugurating nothing
The act of killing
A mythology before creating a new causes an Ideological vacuum
Don't fear the void
All alternatives long gone
Fill this void with (This void with)
With everything there is
To reach awareness
Of whom you're subjected to
Is to become an
Autonomous mind
