

Tarnished Legacy

Beneath the Massacre

As you unconsciously run towards your bitter end
Oblivious of what you are
Oblivious of what you've done
The end didn't always seem to justify the means
Your tarnished legacy

Denial
Living your life in denial
To preserve
Your lifestyle, you preserve this pain
Violence, empty promises, false hopes
And venerate fake idols leading towards extinction
Towards your extinction

Now are you willing to read between the lines?
A last glimpse at your wasteland will convince you
Your patrimony is evil
Your fear of death brought you to your knees
And your last prayers fell upon deaf ears
And your bloodstained heritage
Will speak for your whole existence

As you know he can't be fooled
And you sure reaped what you sowed
But you can't fool yourself any longer
Where you're going you can bring none
Bring none

And so it ends
In a free fall going nowhere fast
Enjoy the calm
Stare at the blue sky in the eye of the storm
Eyes wide open
Passive passenger going nowhere fast
Blue sky
Nowhere
Embrace your self-delusion
Embrace your self-delusion
Embrace your self-delusion
Embrace your self-delusion
