

Miss Misery With A Delicate Voice

Beneath The Sky

Separate from thy will. Separate yourself from your will. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done.

What does it take to let me in to see your scars?! (To let me in)

The moonlit sky has casts its spell. Putting me in your wishing well. I'll do whatever it takes to keep my heart in the right place.

What does it take to let me in? Pray for me as I pray for you. It is my only way to be.

I will do it all, I will give it all, and I will pray for all for one more day.. What are you afraid of?

How will I ever see the stars again? When its so hard for me to hold my head up high. But I am willing to know that faith is always there. Will you be there for me?

With you.. One more day with you...
