

Crawling over Corpses

Benediction

Lividity in progress
Overwhelming is the stench
Victims to process
Exsanguination your torment
Under my watchful gaze
Never to live out your days
Sensual obsession grew
I'm crawling over corpses for you

Bleakly view your future
This final light so black
Howling in the darkness
As you're naked on my rack
Blind love gained by torture
Sweet words of your screams
Complicit enchantment
I'm crawling over corpses in my dreams

My incessant need
To watch you fucking bleed
This fascinating love
To bathe in so much blood

Blood!

A poisoned mind, infatuate
Desire, crush, hallucinate
A murdered mass, initial thrust
Crawling over corpses in lust

Inhumanity revealed
Epidermis slowly peeled
Empty voids now to be filled
With all the victims I have killed
Your body left out to decay
The pinnacle of my display
Mountainous dead, a passion true
Crawling over corpses for you
For you

I'm crawling over corpses
Crawling over corpses
Crawling over corpses
To get to you
