You got what you wanted all along
You told me you loved me
But you didn't you were wrong
Yah
I been falling on my own
I don't wanna lie I think I'm better off alone
Yah

Hey-hey love
You gun watch this fade away or you gun save us
You gun watch me die today I'm outta patience
Cause I do not wanna play these games I'm tryna make up
Cause we ain't finished
Won't you hear me out
Just-just for a minute
All these people run they mouths
But they don't get it
Baby I just need you now
Won't you please just be yourself with me
Time's running out
Are you down to go to hell with me

Or nah
I-I got lots of problems
Please just call
Are you a really a true day one?
Or a fraud?
She just want me for my paystub
Bitch get lost
When I leave I'll take a coffin with me
Cause I'm so dead bitch
If you really wanna problem with me
You finna get it
Type back type back
Don't want you sad so I always write back
Tra-trapped in my head always stuck in the past

Yeah, yeah always stuck in the past
Yeah-yeah, yeah, yeah always stuck in my head
Yeah, yeah feeling better off dead
Honestly I'm upset
Honestly I'm obsessed
Wi-wi-with you
You're shining like a diamond
Always blue
When you say you love me
Is it true?
Give a fuck about the money
