

I Called, You Didn't Answer

Benedixhion

Avoiding my feelings
I've been down for the wrong type of reasons
Tell me why I still feel empty
Tell me why my hearts still beating

Avoiding my feelings
I've been down for the wrong type of reasons
Tell me why I still feel empty
Tell me why my hearts still beating

I just feel so damn wasted
I'm a fucking waste of space
So please erase me
I don't deserve happiness
Don't deserve anything
And my entire existence
Is a misshapen thing

I don't know why I'm here
Why is this happening?
Feel myself giving into fear
My heart is blackening
I just wish that someone could hear me
But the end is nearing
And I'm all by myself
I just miss when you were here
I just wish that you were here

Avoiding my feelings
I've been down for the wrong type of reasons
Tell me why I still feel empty
Tell me why my hearts still beating

Avoiding my feelings
I've been down for the wrong type of reasons
Tell me why I still feel empty
Tell me why my hearts still beating

I just feel so damn wasted
I'm a fucking waste of space
So please erase me
I don't deserve happiness
Don't deserve anything
And my entire existence
Is a misshapen thing
