

Not Enough

Benedixhion

I ain't what you want
I ain't what you need
I been really on my own
I ain't even got a team, yah

I ain't what you want
I ain't what you need
I been on my own
I ain't got nobody, yah

I ain't what you want
I ain't what you need
I been really on my own
I ain't even got a team, yah

I ain't what you want
I ain't what you need
I been on my own
I ain't got nobody, yah

You gonna watch me fade away
Help me find my hiding place
I don't wanna cry today
I just hate my life, okay
Riding solo
I been feeling so low
I don't really know though
Where I'm supposed to go though
I don't wanna die slow
I just wanna run home
Get away from all of you
Get away from everything
Why y'all hate on me
Why you playing me
Why you playing me

Why you playing me
It's not a game, girl
My heart is not a game, girl

Please help me hide myself away
I hope I am alright one day
Please help me lock myself away
So I can't see the light of day

I ain't what you want
I ain't what you need
I been really on my own
I ain't even got a team

I ain't what you want
I ain't what you need
I been on my own
I ain't got nobody

I ain't what you want

I been really on my own

I ain't what you want
I ain't what you need
I been on my own

Don't overthink it
I really miss it when
You tell me I'm not enough
Don't worry, it'll buff
I know I'm not the one
So go find him
Leave me in the dirt and go find him
Just not there yet
She wanna hang, that's a big bet
After we're still not enough, 'Ben'
